Helloooo... The candidate's name is Binay Singh. He is from India and he just thought that he should pursue with his Masters abroad in order to have a bright future and earn a lot of money ... Is that a good plan? Hmm..He thinks so yes!!

researching about different universities, in various places around the world and most importantly the Fees!! Oh God! He has to pay a hell lot of money if he has to do my masters : (hmm.. Germany Seems to offer Study courses at a cheaper Fee and also there are many good universities...!! So He starts surfing about the universities in Germany and tries to filter out some.

Okay.. So now He should start

Finally after a long and Exciting research , he has found a university in Heidelberg, one of the most beautiful places in Germany. It is called the SRH Hochschule. After checking the Fees and about the university in the homepage, He has decided to look for his Masters course Catalog in this university.

He also takes a look at the various courses offered in SRH Hochschule. By clicking the specific type of course he wants to look at, i.e Masters or Bachelors , and also by giving in inputs of his interests he Takes a look at the detailed information provided in the website about the courses.

Finallyyy .. He has got the one that interests his passion and career interests. So After thorough research, he decides to go with that specific course. But he has a lot of doubts that has to be clarified before he starts the application process.

There is a Forum in the Homepage of the SRH Hochschule Website for a general discussion with the public or with some Consultants who are aware about the various course perspectives offered by the university. Here Mr.Binay can discuss and post questions to the public and get his doubts clarified.

The Educational Consultants would reply for relevant questions and would give inputs to the candidates about the course and career opportunities.

Mr.Binay can also check if he qualifies for the given course by entering certain details asked by the university where in he can be assessed after which he can start the application process.

So then, Mr.Binay has made up his mind to go with a particular course based on all the discussion he had with the public and also the consultants thereby clarifying all the doubts he had.

In order to proceed with the application process, Mr.Binay has to register and create a user account with the SRH Website inorder to maintain his data in the University database. Hence, he creates an account by entering all the basic details asked for by the university. Once He has registered and created an account, he goes back to enter the username, password to login to his account and proceed further with his application process.

During this process, Mr.Binay fills in all the details required by the university in order to qualify him for the enrollment. He will upload all the necessary documents like educational MArksheets, certificates, Curriculam vitae, Statement of purpose(Motivation Letter) or any other required documents asked.
